Teacher Appreciation Week
May 7th-11th, 2012

The first week of May is a very special week at All About Learning. Each day is filled with a special event or gift for our staff to show them how much we appreciate them.

As we celebrate, we have two apple trees in our main hallway called “The Giving Tree” which will have wishing apples hanging from it. Each teacher will be placing apples on the trees. The RED apples represent items the teachers would like for their classroom and the GREEN apples have ideas for personal items the teachers would appreciate and enjoy. Parents are welcome to pick an apple(s) off the tree and purchase the chosen item for the teacher/classroom. Families are welcome to present the teachers with their chosen gift anytime during the week.

On Thursday, May 10th, we are having a special teacher luncheon. We are asking you bring in a favorite dish for all of the staff to enjoy. We have a sign up sheet at the front counter for all of you that are interested in letting our teachers know how much you appreciate them by perking up their taste buds.

Another way of showing your appreciation this week will be by giving the staff a “Pat on the Back.” Either a “Thank You” or what you and your children appreciate most about our teacher and staff. Handprints will be displayed throughout the center. Please be sure to include the staff’s name and either your families or child’s name on the hand print. Please don’t forget about our cook, Mrs. Carol!

Please participate in this special week to show all of our staff how much you appreciate all that they do!
